

Crazy Apple Rumors Site - The Menu

CUSTOMER COMMENTS

The CARS staff made us very uncomfortable. Some of them were drooling. Particularly, but not limited to, the dog. The Neanderthal did grill something delicious, though. Was that really squirrel? Magnifique!

- J. Chirac

We hired them for our son's fourth birthday party. Frankly, the children were frightened. And so were we. We wouldn't have them back. Actually, I have a sneaking suspicion some of them are still here - hiding in our crawl space and living off the bag of dog food we keep in the garage. Whoever gets this message, please send help.

- Mrs. Wilson Overshoes, III

Never before have I or my guests been so delighted by an evening of entertainment by an Apple rumor site! The staff of CARS made this a night to remember with their witty reparte and engaging ability as raconteurs!

- CARS' mother
